

American Forces Doing Duty in Archangel Snows

(Above.) Major Gen. Ironsides with Colonel Stewart, Commanding Officer U. S. Troops, inspecting Co. M of 339th Infantry at Archangel. The man in civilian dress is DeWitt C. Poole, Jr., American Charge d'Affaires. The inspection took place on Nov. 20, 1918. (© U. S. Official.)

(At Left.) Blockhouse which protects the south end of the siding at Oberzerskaya, constructed by Co. B, 310th Engineers, and defended by American soldiers. In the picture is shown First Class Private Arnold Butzberger, Co. I, one of the guards, Nov. 15, 1918. (© U. S. Official.)

FILE OF BOLSHEVIST PRISONERS CAPTURED BY THE AMERICANS GOING THROUGH ARCHANGEL UNDER GUARD. A CONSIDERABLE NUMBER HAVE BEEN TAKEN IN THE DESULTORY FIGHTING GOING ON IN THAT SECTION. (© International Film Service.)